NO. 62

To The Democracy of Lincoln, the State of Kentucky And The Nation.

CHAB ORCHARD, Oct. 1.
GENTLEMEN.—After a long silence, I desire to give a word of warning to the law and order-loving people throughout the State and Nation. A republican personal friend has revealed to me a secret, which, however, is no secret to any reading man, and observant one. Their plan is to levy contributions upon the thousands of postmasters, storekeepers, gunners, United States marshals, clerks in departments, Senators and Congressmen, trusts and monopolies for an enormous election corruption fund to buy the presidency of the United States and the governorship of the State of Kentucky and Indiana. This venal sum will probably reach $25,000,000, millions of which, all that is necessary, is to be used in the State of Kentucky for the purchase of the electoral vote of the State, and more especially the office of governor of this State. Not only the political life of the republican party in the nation and this State is at stake, but in this State their necks also.

Of the 100,000 conspirators, assassins, and murderers of Gov. Goebel, not one would be hung, not one would be punished, if the republican nominee for governor should be elected. The man who fired the shot will be pardoned, the guilty convict in jail at Louisville would be pardoned, and the vile miscreant who was too hastily murderous, even for Taylor, would walk forth from a prison which he should never have seen. After conviction at Georgetown, all his thoughts and looks and stretches should have been upward, with nothing to obstruct his view but the gallows beam. But as that bloody conspirator desires a new trial, I am willing he should be granted a new trial with the understanding that Col. Welch is to cross-examine him and I prosecute him, and if we do not obtain the death penalty he can go scot free, from Scott free.

Now, some may think my estimate of the guilt is too large. But such is not the case. The man who fired the shot, those present aiding and abetting, those who advised it to be done, those who approved of the bloody deed before, and since the act, are all guilty. Those who knowing the felony to have been committed and received, relieved, comforted and assisted the felon are guilty as accessories after the fact and are liable to severe punishment. There are more than 100,000 men, more or less guilty. Gov. Mount, of Indiana, is guilty and when the democratic governor, Kern, of that State, is elected this fall then requisition papers should be sent for Mount and bring him to Kentucky and give him a fair trial and a strong pull. Gov. Kern says he is going to surrender all fugitives from justice, democratic and republican. The republican party as a whole are all guilty of assassination. "To prove this let facts be submitted to a candid world." The bloody murderer on his atrocious mission stops at London and communicates the fact to a circuit judge and county attorney. When he leaves he immediately communicates the information: "That Goebel is going to be killed and Taylor has a pardon written out for the man who is going to kill him." After the horrible deed is done, gloated over, approved of, and confessed by the bloody murderer, like a beast of prey, he goes back to his mountain fastness and in the temple of justice he is met in the aisle, his bloody hand is grasped with joy and exultation, and with the exclamation: "How are you Jim? I am glad to see you! I want to congratulate you on what you did down at Frankfort?" What had Jim done? What he said in the same town he was going to do, of course.

Why such ebullition of joy? Why such heartfelt congratulation so eagerly expressed? In the language of Shakespeare: "Three great oaths could not make me believe it" was because the red-handed murderer had seen his son while at Frankfort.

No, gentlemen, it was because the bloody conspiracy and fiendish murder were known to and approved of by the party. If circuit judges and county attorneys will bid the cruel murderer God-speed on his fiendish mission, and ex-circuit judges will congratulate him on his return, do you not know that a republican governor would pardon every guilty man, though it would take him and his secretary of State the first year of his administration to write out and sign the pardons? It takes a very ignorant man to belong to such a party who does not know the issues before the people, or a very bad man who knows the issues and prefers wrong to right, murder and assassination to peace, law and order.

Gentlemen, as taxpayers, as men for law and order, you must all go to the polls and vote against such a dire calamity to the Commonwealth. We had one radical governor. That is enough for the next thousand years! Law, liberty and justice can stand no more. Now gentlemen, in regard to W. J. Bryan, did this country, or any other in this world ever produce a man before, who makes a thousand speeches on the issues of the day, and clothes them in a thousand different attractive garbs? Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Breckinridge, none of the Marshalls could do it; none of the former presidents, not even Jefferson could do it. The Emperor of Germany, has a thousand suits with which he clothes his body 12 times a day. W. J. Bryan has an inexhaustible reservoir of ideas and he can present them to an admiring people in a thousand new and fascinating robes. A most remarkable man—the most remarkable the world ever saw. What a model president he will make! Now in concluding this rather lengthy article, I want to say to the assassination organs, "That an indictment does not make a man guilty." No, but a man is generally mighty guilty before he is indicted. Conviction does not make a man guilty, but he is generally mighty guilty before he is convicted. Allow me to congratulate the INTERIOR JOURNAL on the tremendous blows it is striking.

KINGSVILLE.

The sick are improving. A fireman and brakeman came near being suffocated in the tunnel recently. They are talking of making a cut out of the tunnel.

The Lexington Morning Democrat is much liked by those who have seen it here. Thanks to the editor for complimentary copies.

Dr. J. L. Allen, of Danville, delighted his former congregation here with several days' service, closing Sunday evening. The church is at present without a pastor. It has never been itself since Dr. Allen's withdrawal.

Your correspondent not believing in monopolies and realizing that the I. J. could procure a much better and more experienced correspondent in our town, has hesitated somewhat about continuing, but having received encouragement from the right source, appreciates it and will continue to the best of her ability to note items of local interest. Exciting incidents just won't occur here, however at least rarely and then the telephone gets in ahead of us and so what is one to write about? We might possibly indulge in poetical effusions and quote or misquote Shakespeare for your correction, but, will considerably forbear.

Mrs. Fannie E. Carey and daughter, Miss Edie Carey, have returned from a protracted visit to Lebanon Junction. Desirous of resuming housekeeping, Mrs. Carey is about to rent Mr. F. M. Howe's vacant store-house, it being positively the only vacant house in town, every dwelling being occupied. Mrs. W. R. Cundiff is quite sick and has adjourned her school this week. Sebastian Chevolette has returned from his work on the railroad and is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Pennybacker, recuperating from his recent indisposition. Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker and daughter, Miss Gertrude, spent a few days last week with her son, C. M. Pennybacker, at Lexington. Mrs. D. P. Dileen and baby, of Somerset, visited her mother, Mrs. Pennybacker, last week. Mrs. Teresa Dunn and brother, Clarence, returned from a several weeks' pleasant visit in Grant county. Jesse Hukel, of Lexington, was with relatives here a few days since. G. A. Walter visited his sister, Mrs. Williams, at Lexington last week. E. W. Creighton visited J. W. Boland at Burnside last week.

CAME NEAR DYING.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely. I went to sleep and did not awake for eight hours. On awakening a few hours ago I felt so gratified that the first work I do on going to the office is to write to the manufacturers of this remedy and offer them my grateful thanks and say 'God bless you and the splendid medicine you make.' This remedy is for sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists."

One fare round-trip to Lexington via Southern Railway account Lexington trots, greatest harness racing in the South. Tickets on sale Oct. 1 to 13, inclusive; good to return until Oct. 15. Southern Railway has three daily trains between Louisville and Lexington.

Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Penny, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

GRADED SCHOOL.

Inasmuch as there is some misunderstanding relative to the graded school proposition, which is soon to be submitted to the voters of Stanford, the board of trustees make the following statement: The tax is submitted under the provisions of the school law, and is for the purpose of running a 10 months school with a graded course of study, and a first-class, up-to-date teacher in charge of each grade. The law gives the board of trustees the right to establish a graded course of study, including the higher branches. Many of the best schools of this State are graded on this plan. We propose to do the same thing, and shall not cease until Stanford has one of the best graded schools in Kentucky. No town can be considered up-to-date or progressive that has not a good graded school. Why, then, should Stanford stand still and allow a few disgruntled citizens to keep her behind the times in the march of civilization? The graded school is the only school that offers a thorough, systematic education to the youths of the land. Let every citizen who believes in higher education, and systematic instructions, vote for the tax to make this school. Do not be deceived by persons who would make you believe that the board of trustees don't intend to make a graded school.

Respectfully submitted to the voters of District No. 1.

W. B. O'Bannon, chairman, T. D. Newland and A. C. Sine.

HUSTONVILLE.

Squire L. B. Adams is very ill. The National Bank has bought of the Kauffman heirs the building now occupied by the postoffice, for $300.

The Misses Adams will have their fall opening of millinery next Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 9 and 10. You are cordially invited.

Miss Mary C. Carpenter has returned from Colorado and will take charge of the music class here. Miss Ada Cunningham leaves Friday for New Liberty, where she will teach French and Latin.

Several nights ago Mr. June Hocker delightfully entertained friends at the pretty home of his parents. About eight couples were present and they report a most enjoyable time. The dainty supper having been fully appreciated, the young people spent the rest of the evening in conversing and playing various funny games.

A few of her most intimate friends were invited by Miss Katherine Baughman to celebrate her birthday with her on Monday night. The congenial party after dismembering the birthday cake and rejoicing over their surprising "finds," which betokened what their futures would be, spent the fleeting hours of the evening in gulling each other and playing amusing games. May each succeeding year bring the young lady a happy birthday.

Really Hustonville is a most enterprising town. Lo, after many years of standing, the familiar corner store by the post-office has succumbed to the ravaging weapons of carpenters and its classic ruins lie scattered on the ground, but, like Truth, though "crushed to earth," will rise again! In the form of a store-room and bank below and a town hall above—that is, when the present post-office shall also have been torn down in order to give sufficient space for the projected new building.

The Bachelors' Club of eleven is disturbed. Madam Rumor's tongue has been a-wagging again and she says one of their number is about to leave them, and being the first to steer into matrimony's deep waters, the club, according to solemn compact, must provide his state-room with a handsome set of furniture. No wonder that the boys look "glum," and that unwanted anxiety leaves ungainly strides on their hitherto-unfurrowed brows for the wheels in their heads will have to work and so will their hands in order to provide the requisite $50.

A certain set of girls and boys are not ready yet to say, "The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year," etc. On Wednesday this merry party started out with uncomfortably tight lunch baskets to explore the mysterious knob forests in search of luscious persimmons and to take defensive measures against certain chestnut strongholds by commandeering the Negro picaninies to keep away until old Jack Frost shall have "rousted" the brown chestnuts from their prickly forts when this same elite of Hustonville will come again to the woods and carry off the ripened nuts.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mr. I. S. Phillips, who died at his home in Lincoln county, Sept. 22, 1900, was buried in the Goshen cemetery. Funeral services were held at Goshen church by Eld. J. G. Livingston. He was in the 60th year of his age and a devoted member of the Christian church. He possessed many wise traits of character, which were truly admirable, one of which was his kind and amiable temper and disposition. His great kindness of heart and gentleness of manner bound him to his wife and children with the strongest ties of affection and tenderness. His faith and hope was triumphant, often telling his loved ones he was ready and willing to go. He was a great sufferer for eight years and longed for rest, but bore his sufferings patiently. He was an affectionate husband, devoted father and kind neighbor. Grieve not for he is gone only a little sooner than we. God giveth and God taketh away, but only for awhile. In the eternal reunion he will be ours forever with no thought of parting. He is now sleeping, no more pain and suffering only rest, sweetest. He leaves a wife and four children, who have the sympathy of many kindred and friends. May God be their protector and guide, and all meet again in that blissful beyond, where no more suffering and no parting tears are shed. "From home of love and fond embraces."

The weary one is called to rest, And henceforth in heavenly graces, His spirit whispers back 'tis best."

A NIECE.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

At Lexington Wednesday, Walcutt Hall won the two-year-old Futurity, Game Boy the 2:12 class pace and Georganna the 2:12 trot.

Homer Batson is in Kansas City, seeking a location for the practice of his chosen profession, in which he is quite learned.

Mr. Aaron Simpson and Miss Annie May were married on Wednesday, and Mr. Alonzo Covert and Miss Mattie Trower on Tuesday.

The marriage of Mr. J. T. Palmer, a popular and enterprising citizen, to Miss Lula Burke, an attractive young lady, is announced for Oct. 10.

Messrs. T. B. Robinson, John W. Flowers and William Herndon have been appointed election commissioners for Garrard county, and they are three good citizens.

A license was issued on Wednesday for the marriage of Mr. J. C. Eubanks, of Lincoln county, to Miss Jennie Perkins, of this county. The parties are popular and well connected.

County Clerk Duncan reports that $3,522.40 worth of claims were allowed by the court on Tuesday. Of this amount, $2,050 is the amount of salaries, including turnpike commissioners, who have discharged their duties faithfully.

G. M. Patterson went to Cincinnati this week. Mr. James Milburn, of Stanford, is miller at Ed Minor's mill, and Mr. Newton McNeese, of Berry, is in the same capacity at Ward's. Both being experienced, we will not want for good flour.

A long procession of relatives and friends followed the remains of Mr. Hiram L. Powell to Lancaster cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Wolford of the Baptist church. The community extends sincere condolence to the bereaved family, several of whom are doubly afflicted, being very sick of fever.

Joe Faulconer is with H. M. Ballou & Co., grocers. Jesse Arnold is on the sick list. Judge Hemphill is in Paducah. Ed Minor is in Louisville. Prof. Yantis, of Kansas, is here with friends and relatives. Mrs. Trimble, of Georgia, was the guest of Misses Sallie and Mattie Elkin. Charles W. Frisbie is in Louisville. James McQuerry, of Iowa, is the guest of his brother-in-law, W. T. West. T. J. Hammond and family will move to Lexington, taking with them the good wishes of this community. Miss Cora Harman, of London, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. R. G. Ward.

More oratory and enthusiasm was on tap at the Gilbert club on Tuesday night than ever before, and the number of members was more than doubled. Chairman J. E. Robinson presented large pictures of Bryan and Beckham to the club. He, Messrs. Swinebroad, Davidson, Hamilton, Grant, Siler and others made rallying remarks. A prominent colored man named Leavel joined the club. Let every democrat attend at the court-house next Saturday night. Clubs will be organized at Paint Lick and Bryansville Saturday afternoon, and help to swell the party favoring a free government, independent of military rule.

Mr. R. E. Hughes, formerly of this city, has been appointed by the executive committee of the 28th Triennial Convocation of the Knights Templars of America to be held in Louisville next August, as one of two managers of a press bureau, to give to the newspapers of Louisville, of Kentucky and every metropolitan paper in the country, all the news connected with the progress of the work of the committees having in hand the coming convocation. His associate will be Mr. C. C. Owsley, who was city editor of the News, while he held a similar position on the Commercial. Mr. Hughes' friends are delighted to hear of his appointment to this highly honorable and lucrative position.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. called on the city council on Monday night and presented through Mrs. W. O. Bradley a petition of 600 names, asking for a more rigid enforcement of the law against the unlawful sale of whisky and other offenses. City Attorney W. I. Williams explained how difficult it is to convict, when many witnesses swear falsely. Various suggestions were made and the council took the matter under consideration. The plans most favored are to put two good night men on duty, or let the citizens go, in a body, in daylight, and proclaim the unwritten law to keepers of the whisky dens, telling them if they don't close up they will be closed by force. This has been done elsewhere, and it seems to be the only remedy here. There will be no one hurt, nor will any one be convicted of a crime, while seeking to prevent that which the law prohibits.

Berry Howar, under indictment for complicity in the assassination of Wm. Goebel, headed a republican parade of rough riders at Pineville. He was the most conspicuous figure in the day's demonstration on behalf of the republican candidates.

WHEN our career in the role of imperialism is carefully, or even casually considered, it becomes apparent that instead of being a cause for glorification, it is the greatest source of shame in our history, and that consistency is not one of the jewels in our emperor's crown. The original cause of the war with Spain was its barbarous oppression of the island of Cuba. This had been a stench in the nostrils of humanity for many years. In all their heroic struggles for liberty, the Cubans had the sympathy and aid of the American people, and these were in every case the greatest obstacles in Spain's way in suppressing the various insurrections. This American sympathy, already at a white heat, was fanned into a flame by the destruction of the "Maine," and McKinley actually forced into war by the democratic members of Congress, who were the real representatives of the people in this matter. The war was heralded to the world as one of humanity, the resolution declaring it expressly disclaiming any disposition or intention to make it one of conquest. It was announced that Cuba should and would be free as soon as it was capable of self-government. The history of the Philippine Islands is substantially the same as that of Cuba. At the time that our sympathy for Cuba exploded into war, the inhabitants of the Philippines were making the same heroic struggle to throw off Spain's yoke of bondage. This, however, was before the days of expansion and it was generally believed that the Monroe doctrine confined our sympathy to the Western Hemisphere. Had it not been for the fact that a large portion of Spain's navy was stationed in the Philippines, the war would have been fought to a finish, and the treaty of peace concluded, without those islands being once considered. To weaken Spain's chances in the war, Admiral Dewey was sent over to destroy that section of her navy, and the retention of the islands was an after thought altogether. So the United States are in this predicament; Spain had two colonies on opposite sides of the world making heroic efforts to remove the heel of oppression. Our sympathy for Cuba warranted a war of assistance in obtaining the desired end, but the Philippines, whose inhabitants are said by those who know both people well, to be more capable of self-government, than the Cubans, are to become our serfs. It therefore results that our government is doing exactly what it went to war to prevent Spain from doing, and to our shame it must be said that its course in reference to these old colonies of Spain has been an exact duplicate of the course pursued by Spain. We are butchering the Filipinos because they are struggling for independence and our officials have been stealing the public funds in Cuba in regular Spanish fashion. If Spain had no right to suppress a struggle for liberty in Cuba, what right have we to suppress it in the Philippines? If it was wrong in one case, it is wrong in the other. It will be remembered, however, that the conflict was originally a democratic war of freedom and that McKinley converted it into a republican war of slavery and theft. From present indications it will require perpetual warfare to even attempt to retain sovereignty over the Philippines. When our people consider the great cost of an endless war and the iniquity of an unjust war, into which this has developed, in numerous particulars besides those mentioned, we are comforted with the blessed assurance that when they vote at the approaching election, they will say, with an emphatic stamp under the rooster, that imperialism is a crime which they do not propose to encourage.

The colored Odd Fellows, in great numbers, are in session in Louisville. It is fortunate that the meeting didn't occur during the hot spell, for their odor mixed with that of the goat, would have been a greater burden than the olfactory of the community could have borne.

"The Private Life of the Prince of Wales" is the name of a book soon to be published. If the book states all of the facts, or even a small part of them, it will have to be circulated by the express companies, for the reason that it will be excluded from the mails.

HOBSON has asked for a six months leave of absence, because an oculist has said that his eyes need rest. If the Filipino girls have kept him as busy while sojourning among them as our own did before his departure, his lips need rest worse than his eyes.

HANNA says that it is a great wrong to try to mix up the strike with politics. If, however, the strike was hurting the democratic instead of the republican party, he would take great pleasure in stirring the mixture.

THE so-called "honest democrats" in the Sixth district met in a small hotel in Covington and nominated Theodore Hallam for Congress. The man with a face resembling a cankerous beefsteak, made so by long and heavy potatoes, will cut but a poor figure in a race for anything except a bar room. The last time he asked to go before the people for their suffrages was for State Senator against Mr. Goebel, when the great democratic leader hardly let him know he was in the race, and he will know less "where he is at" after Mr. Gooch gets through with him than then.

BERRY HOWARD, under indictment for complicity in the assassination of Gov. Goebel, and a fugitive from justice, headed a company of Rough Riders that went into Pineville to hear Bill Beckner, of Winchester, speak on civil liberty, the audience befitting the man and the occasion. Since Gov. Bradley gave Beckner the unmerciful flagellation a few years ago, he has become so mean and miserable that he had to seek the company of cut-throats and assassins to have any company at all. Berea Bill is to be congratulated on at last reaching his level.

It is announced that Gov. J. C. W. Beckham will become a Benedict Nov. 21, when he will lead Miss Jean Fuqua, of Owensboro, to the altar. Fortune seems to smile her sweetest smiles on this young man of destiny. It rarely falls to a man of his years to be honored so signally as he will be by his fellow citizens next month, when his cup of joy will be filled to overflowing by the hand and heart of one of the fairest of the fair.

AN effort is being made to have the United States act as mediator in the entire Chinese trouble. Settling the Philippine trouble is as big a job as the United States can well undertake in that region at the present time.

It is said that the Chinese trouble was mainly caused by a book recently written by a reformer. Teddy Roosevelt, on account of a fellow feeling, doubtless has great sympathy for the afflicted in this trouble.

It is a singular coincidence that while the postmasters in the State are being robbed by the collectors of the republican campaign fund, that the postoffices are being robbed by unknown persons.

A stove trust is being formed. Hunt up your old fashioned pot hooks and skillets and prepare to go to cooking in the fire-place.

THAT the licks Carl Schurz is giving the republicans hurt, is shown very clearly by their shrieks and howls.

SOME LEXINGTON NOTES

On Politics, Horse Trots, Etc.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 4.—When Judge Jewell made his famous remark that "Politics is hell" he was on to the peculiarly torrid variety always on tap here, and spoke advisedly, as I can bear witness. What the leaders on both sides do not know of the tricks of the trade in political matters is not worth mentioning and they work them for all they are worth. An unsophisticated country man like myself, who has always been led to believe that everybody totes fair in politics, has his confidence in man rudely shaken when he discovers his error and learns things not heretofore dreamed of in his philosophy. Registration is to begin here tomorrow and I suspect I shall have ocular demonstration of what I have had a growing suspicion, Lexington people, or at any rate some of them, are the veriest night hawks I have ever seen. I have been on the streets at every hour of the night from midnight to daylight and I have never failed to see men, and some of them gray headed, standing on certain corners in squads instead of being in bed and enjoying nature's sweet restorer. Who they are and what they do is a mystery to me, but I feel like it would give me great satisfaction to murder the fools, who with nothing to keep them up, stay out all night and lose the best part of life. I have slept less than four hours a day and night since I have been here and I am beginning to long for some quiet nook, where all the world forgetting by the world forgot, I could sleep to the end of time.

The people of Lexington were treated Tuesday to a foretaste of what they may expect at every election hereafter if the republican plans are carried out. A number of United States deputy marshals, two or more from the mountains, were on hand from the opening to the close of the registration, brought here to overawe and intimidate the people by their display of badges and show of authority. The indignation expressed on every hand here was loud and deep and showed that the people are thoroughly aroused to the point of resisting in an unmistakable manner the outrage upon their rights as responsible as it was uncalled for.

The killing of the Negro editor and lawyer, R. C. O. Benjamin, by Mike Monahan, while unfortunate and to be regretted, will cause no tears to flow from republican eyes. He was a thorn in the flesh of some of the white leaders who would have removed him some time ago, if their courage had been equal to their desire. George Denny was especially hostile towards him for his frequent and bitter criticisms.

The result of the registration in Lexington Tuesday is very gratifying to the democrats. It shows a majority in their favor of 249 over the republicans, with a good chance to get at least half of the 289 registered as independents.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Sims called on us at the Phoenix the other night. He is pastor of the Hill street church here and stands very highly as a man and as a preacher. He is a red-hot democrat that makes one more than ever fond of him. Mr. Sims has gotten quite gray, but Mrs. Sims looks as young and as pretty as she used to be when she came to Stanford as a child wife. They have one child, a boy seven or eight years old.

The city is jammed, crammed and jammed with horsemen drawn thither by the trots, which will last 10 days. A great crowd saw Ferezo win the $16,000 futurity, and yelled itself hoarse, but it had little effect on me. Col. Jim Guest used to say that nobody but a dern fool would go to a trotting race and I thought yesterday I could see where he was right.

I am getting a little more reconciled to my job, and I infer that my good friends have been praying for me. Keep up the good work. An unsophisticated country rooster who comes to town needs all the help he can get, divine and otherwise; to keep him in the narrow path. W. P. W.

POLITICAL.

H. H. Rynderson, of Marion, is a candidate for Representative.

Ex-President Harrison, after much persuasion, has consented to make one for McKinley.

The registration in the various cities and towns does not cause democrats to feel a bit blue.

W. R. Hearst was re-elected President of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, in convention at Indianapolis.

Mr. Yerkes having evaded the question whether he would if elected, pardon Caleb Powers and Jim Howard, Gov. Beckham wants to know whether, if elected, he would issue a requisition for the return of Fugitives Taylor and Finley.

In a speech in the Capitol grounds at Lincoln, Neb., almost in hearing of the governor, Roosevelt accused Gov. Poynter of saying that the American soldier is a hired butcher at $15 a month. Gov. Poynter was quick to deny the statement, characterizing it as an unmitigated falsehood.

Judge Evans devoted most of his instructions to the Federal grand jury to the law bearing on the exercise of suffrage by Negroes. He called attention to the conviction of alleged violators of the election law last year and said he wanted the jurors to get behind the "mere tools" and get the leaders of the conspiracy to defraud at the election.

Old Phil Thompson, who used to be a democrat, introduced Mr. Yerkes, at Harrodsburg, Monday, and thereby proved that his days on earth have been prolonged for a very poor purpose. It is unfortunate that death doesn't always do its duty, and remove a man before he ruins his whole record and brings himself into lasting contempt.—Lexington Democrat.

The republicans are lauding to the skies their Congressional nominee, Dr. John M. Williams. In their accounts of his previous life, however, they neglect to state the only thing which has gained him previous notoriety—that was his being refused license to run a saloon in Louisville. A man that can't be trusted that far has no business meddling with the affairs of the nation.—Richmond Climax.

A. H. Stamper, democratic elector in the 10th district, was howled down by a drunken mob of armed republicans at Salyersville, who took possession of the platform and shouted for "Tallow Dick," Caleb Powers and Taylor. Pandemonium reigned for one hour, at the expiration of which time Mr. Stamper gave up trying to speak and Judge Redwine convened court in order to quell the riot.

Mr. King is pastor of the church at Walnut Flat.

Mr. George H. Farris, one of Stanford's best young business men, and Miss Janie, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Wearen, will be married at the bride's home here at 10:30 Tuesday morning, Oct. 16. The wedding will be a very quiet affair, only relatives of the pair being expected. They will go up East for a few days and returning, will be at home to their friends after the 20th. Both are very popular young people and their union will be the result of a courtship of years.

The following is clipped from a lengthy write-up in the Farmer's Advocate, of Hamilton, Mo: "A quiet but beautiful wedding was that of Mr. Ewing Basil Hayden and Miss Harriet Elizabeth Allen at the bride's home in this city Wednesday afternoon. The house was artistically decorated for the occasion, the double parlors being arranged with palms and ferns and the dining room with American beauty roses. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The bride is well known as the charming daughter of Mr. Trigg T. Allen and the groom is a capitalist and leading business man of Hamilton, who is to be congratulated on winning so fair a bride. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany the couple.

THAT splendid democrat, Hon. W. B. Smith, of Richmond, will speak here Monday and democrats all over the county will come to hear him. Unlike Capt. Stone and Wat Hardin, Mr. Smith is not sore over his failure to secure the nomination for governor and is doing valiant service for the cause of democracy.

GILBERT.—Congressman Gilbert will make eight speeches in this county beginning at Crab Orchard Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 10. He will speak at Ottensheim that night, at Waynesburg Thursday afternoon and at Kingsville that night, at McKinney Friday afternoon and Junction City, that night, at Hustonville Saturday afternoon and at Stanford that night. Go and hear him.

AFTER a long illness of a complication of diseases, Mrs. John G. Martin died at her home at Saufley Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock. She was a daughter of the late J. M. The burial will occur in Buffalo Cemetery this afternoon.

AFTER splendid speeches by Hon. R. C. Warren and Mr. W. S. Burch at J. H. Carter's store Tuesday night a democratic club of 38 members was organized. T. W. Hutchison was chosen president; C. B. McGuffey, vice president; Henderson Baugh, secretary, and J. H. Carter, treasurer. The club was named "The Carter Democratic Club" after that wheelhorse democrat, "Highland" Jim Carter. The meetings will be held on Tuesday nights.

AN enthusiastic Bryan, Stevenson and Beckham club of 88 members was organized at Kingsville Wednesday night with W. L. McCarty, president, J. A. McKee, 1st vice president, G. A. Walter, 2nd vice-president, Dr. J. W. Acton, secretary, M. G. Murphy, assistant secretary and J. M. McCarty treasurer. Hon. R. C. Warren and W. S. Burch addressed the club after its organization and their efforts brought forth much applause. The meetings will be held on Thursday nights.

ALLEN.—Mrs. David C. Allen, who was Miss Annie McKinney, familiarly known as "Sister," and daughter of Mr. Arch B. McKinney, of the McKinney section, died Monday evening and was buried in the Hustonville cemetery Tuesday afternoon after services by Rev. W. W. Bruce. All who knew Mrs. Allen well, loved her for her many noble traits of character and her lovely disposition, which was sunshine itself. There never was a truer or more loving wife than she was and the husband, who is bowed down with grief, has the sympathy of all good people. They were a happy pair and although married for years, their honeymoon had never ended. The writer saw Mrs. Allen and his frail, delicate wife at the Hustonville fair and his attention to her attracted the admiration of all who saw them. May the Lord help the husband and aged father to bear their loss and make them fully realize that their loss is her gain.

BURKE'S SPEECH.—Last night was a great one for the democracy of Lincoln county and more enthusiasm was shown by the sturdy democrats than for some time. The announcement that Hon. Frank B. Burke, of Indiana, would speak brought a crowd variously estimated at from 1,000 to 1,500 and all who heard the masterly effort of the distinguished Indianaian felt more than repaid for their coming. Every club in the county was represented, but Moreland and Kingsville sent the largest delegations. Representatives from the former brought along a banner which bore on one side "Moreland Club, 200 Strong," and on the other "Bryan, Beckham and Gilbert." "Down with Assassins and Thugs." Before the speaking a horseback procession was formed and some 150 true blues carrying transparencies bearing such inscriptions as "Bryan, Beckham and Gilbert," "Remember Goebel," "Down with Trusts," "100,000 Standing Army Costs $148,000,000," "Down with Nationalism," "Law and Order against Government by Assassination," "Republic against Empire," "Bryan, Stevenson, Beckham and Gilbert," &c., &c., paraded the streets. Later the Stanford band took position at the head of the column and footmen fell in by the hundred. It was a demonstration that will not soon be forgotten in Stanford. Everybody was in a good humor and some of the boys were so full of democracy that they frequently gave vent to their feelings by loud yells for the gentlemen on the magnificent ticket the democrats nominated. Mr. Burke was not in condition physically to speak outdoors and the speakers stand, which had been beautifully decorated, was given up for the court-house. Not half of the crowd could gain entrance, but there was no kick from those who failed; they were feeling too good over democratic success to kick about anything. At 7:15 Hon. R. C. Warren in well chosen words introduced Mr. Burke, who for two hours spoke on trusts and imperialism and the necessity of electing democrats this year. His opposition to the two great issues above was couched in magnificent language and was so plain and clear that the wayfaring man, though he be a republican, could not fail to see the point intended. His references to the late Gov. Goebel were grand, while his criticism of Taylor and his gang was most scathing. He scored "Proxy" John Yerkes fore and aft. His speech was a splendid one and it will do much good in this county, where probably there were those who were not thoroughly conversant with the issues—trusts and imperialism. Loud calls were made for Judge M. C. Saufley at the close of Mr. Burke's speech, but that gentleman failed to respond.

Reynolds and he and his family will move to it in a few days. J. B. Glass, of Owen county, bought a car load of sheep and calves in this section this week. M. Howard will move to Waynesburg in a few days. The Waynesburg Democratic Club has had only one meeting and it has a membership of over 70.

Will be at Moreland Wednesday, Oct. 10, to buy 100 horse and mule colts, also yearling mules. Will buy cotton and sugar mules. Joe Kindig, Philadelphia.

Boralma won the great Transylvania trot at Lexington after falling down in the first heat. The Abbott, driven by Ed Geers, trotted an exhibition mile in 2:03, equaling his record.

Chas. Lutes, of the firm of Lutes & Co., sold to M. B. Scott, of Bryantsville, 11 yearling mules at $60. He bought of J. L. Adams, of Jessamine county, a nice, seven-year-old mare for $100.

Probably the largest cattle feeder in Kentucky is James E. Clay. On his 4,200 acres of land in this county he is feeding 1,200, and has 600 acres of corn in cultivation, which will not feed them longer than Jan. 1st.—Paris Democrat.

A large crowd attended S. H. Yeager's sale near Hedgeville Wednesday and enjoyed a splendid dinner set by that clever gentleman. Good prices ruled throughout. Calves brought $18 to $35, cows $25 to $68, horses $80 to $100, bulls $35 to $45. Corn sold at $1.62 at the heap.

There were 1,000 cattle on the Richmond market Monday and prices ranged from 24 to 40c. A bunch of 700-pound yearlings brought the top price. A lot of 600-pound heifers brought 30c. Aged mules brought $50 to $150 and mule colts $30 to $70.

Fereno won the rich Futurity for three-year-old trotters at Lexington Tuesday in straight heats. Susie J. and Lady Thisbe were second and third. Best time, 2:10. Connor, once Warren Russell's old standby, won the Tennessee stake for 2-year pacers, going the first heat in 2:05.

Perry Browning sold to D. W. Scott and J. W. Pace the crop of lambs for 1901 from 150 ewes at 50c for lambs of 65 pounds and over to go June 15th to 20th; also those of that size to go July 15th to 20th at the same price. At the last period the ewes are to be taken at $4.50 each.—Winchester Democrat.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Women of the Central Christian church at Lexington have undertaken to raise $13,000 by prayer.

The report of the proceedings of the Methodist conference at Elizabethtown, indicate that some wolves in sheep's clothing have been officiating in that body.

The meeting at the Union church at Moreland, conducted by Eld J. Q. Montgomery, of Liberty, is drawing great crowds. There have been a number of additions.

Opening Speech of Prohibition

Campaign at Booneville, on
Sep. 10, by Hon. John D.
White, Nominee for Governor.

A friend of mine said to me last night, "White, Owsley county has always stood by you, but you will find yourself mighty far away from the people now." But, my friends, I wouldn't be entitled to the respect of a single man, woman or child in Owsley county to-day, if I didn't take the same position now that I took 28 years ago and have maintained every since. I have not changed. It is you and the republican party that have changed. I have always advocated the abolition of the liquor traffic ever since I began making political speeches. If I was right in 1874 when, with the republican flag in my hand, I advocated that principle before it was ever put in the republican platform, I am right now. From 1872 until now Owsley county has stuck by that principle and shall you say I have changed because I am still standing by it if you have deserted? In 1882 I introduced a bill in Congress to appoint a commission to investigate the sale of liquor and you endorsed it. I introduced a bill to repeal the whole U. S. internal revenue system and you endorsed that. Six years later (1888) Wm. McKinley produced a platform to the republican party, in which he said, "If it is necessary to protect American Industries, we will repeal the whole internal revenue system." No! I haven't changed. In 1896, the republican party for the first time put this grandest plank on temperance the world has ever seen in its platform.

"We sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and to promote morality."

But you don't find this in the republican platform of 1900. How can the republican party adopt that plank when we see the intemperance and immorality among our brave boys in the Philippines, not only permitted but encouraged by a republican administration. The army cautions a premium on drunkenness. McKinley is not a bad, but a weak man, and when two of his underlings, Griggs and Root, tortured the law to mean that, while you could not require any person to sell, nor should the soldiers be allowed to sell liquor, there was nothing to prevent the government from employing a man to do the dirty work, the weak man gave
